

Member Success Story

MGI Latin American firms are committed to “Working Together” as part of one of the world’s leading accounting networks.

The slogan “Working Together can be found on the cover of the 2017 MGI Worldwide annual report, a special edition that celebrates the 70-year anniversary of our global accounting network.

Last November, MGI Jebsen & Co. and MGI LT Accountant & Asociados, member accounting firms located in Argentina and the Dominican Republic respectively, agreed to offer an internship to one of the Dominican firm’s audit supervisors, Ginelcy Paulino, as part of an ambitious staff training and succession to strengthen both technical and managerial skills among young professional staff.

Staff training for mutual benefit

This initiative is related to an improvement program of IAS quality standards, to improve auditing and other related services offered by MGI LT Accountant & Asociados. This and other similar tasks form part of the global commitments required of all MGI Worldwide network members, and also form part of the national accounting professional practice standards. Ivana Medina, a member of the MGI Jebsen & Co. professional auditing team stated that Ginelcy had the opportunity to “expand her experience in international entity auditing procedures. There was an exchange of opinions regarding planning, quality control and audit approach and procedures, which could be applied to different selected entities and activities”. In addition, MGI Jebsen & Co. had the opportunity to increase its capacity to interact with international members.

Support and advice for members under review

Last year, quality control revision, a process mandatory for all MGI Worldwide network members, started. Reviewers from our region, performed several of these scheduled reviews. In addition to the necessary revision tasks being undertaken, members under review were provided with valuable support and advice where needed.

“As a result of this experience, our fellow members benefit from developing and improving their skills and professional capabilities.”

Ricardo Ruiz, Partner, MGI P&P Asociados, Venezuela

“We participated in an excellent professional and business experience. A strong relationship was formed.”

Joint venture projects development

- a) Working with MGI Vía Consultoría in their Audit Division development has enabled them to strengthen their position in the local audit and related services market with the confidence that comes from having skilled staff and being compliant with international standards.
- b) Both firms agreed to work towards the same objectives that MGI Vía Consultoría were targeting, with the additional objective of boosting operations in the Santo Domingo office of MGI LT Accountant & Asociados. This is an ongoing project, and both firms are optimistic and enthusiastic about the expected results. Networking activities, contact with the local Mackrell member and multilateral agreements have been made.

Network members elevate the level of their firms

These experiences certainly tie in with the slogan on the cover of the 2017 MGI Worldwide Annual Report, which illustrates what the main purpose of a network and alliance is. “Grow operations, improve new business locally, nationally and around the world.”

One important and recurring aspect among all these projects is the intention and subsequent success of member firms in achieving more, investing time, money and effort to reach higher goals, and to grow and elevate the level of their accounting firms.

“MGI value is equal to the sum member engagements” – Erik Emilsson, Revideco

The actions taken by all MGI’s greatly appreciated members surely increase the value of MGI Worldwide.
